

at the first floor there was no need for solid masonry in the center of the chimney.
above the first floor the masonry and flues corbel toward the center as the chimney mass becomes narrower.