

Public Landing at the Head of Westport circa 1900 - View of east landing with Pacific Union Congregational Church on left side, Wolf Pit Hill on right. (WHS 2005.036.051)

What is going on in the photo? _____

Look at the landscape. Can you name the buildings and their use?

What looks the same today? _____

What is different? _____

What shapes can you point out on the buildings?

Notice how the land is separated. What is used to do this?

Have you seen this in other locations around town? _____

Where? _____

Chapter 2 Post-lesson Public Landings

—————

STEEPLE – an ornamental tower constructed on the roof of a church or public building.

—————

RAIL – a bar extending horizontally between supports, as in a fence.

—————

STONE WALL – a fence built of rough stones usually fitted without mortar used to separate fields.

Westport Historical Society
Children's Heritage
Education Program

© 2014