

Abner B. Gifford House 1830, 496 Old County Road. –
Point out some its architectural details. (WHS 2006.042.019)

- Shingle cladding: _____
- Pediment: _____
- Fanlight Transom: _____
- Sidelights: _____
- Shutters: _____
- Pilasters: _____
- Balusters: _____
- Keystone: _____
- Paned Windows: _____
- Window Cap: _____
- Rail: _____

Chapter 2 Post-lesson Architectural Elements

PEDIMENT – a triangular area on the face of a building below the roof, above an entrance.

TRANSOM – a small window above a door letting in light.

BALUSTER – a short column used in a group to support a rail; commonly found on the side of a stairway.

Westport Historical Society
Children's Heritage
Education Program